DYDDIAD CYFARFOD NESAF; Y GANOLFAN ABERGYNOLWYN NOS LUN 8fed o Ebrill 2024 , 7.00y.h.

LLANFIHANGEL Y PENNANT COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Minutes of a meeting of the Council held on Monday evening the 11th of March 2024 at 7.00pm in the Ganolfan, Abergynolwyn.

Present; Cllr. Emrys Thompson, Elwyn Evans, Robert D Jones, Gwynedd Roberts, Steve Lewis, Eleri Puw, Bethan Lawton (Gwynedd Council) and Huw T Jones (Clerk)

1. A warm welcome was extended to everyone by Chairman Emrys Thompson.
Apologies were received from Cllr Dylan Jarman and Cllr Miriam Webb.

2. Expressions of interest were invited for issues on the agenda, and Cllr Robert Jones indicated an interest in the application from Meirionnydd Young Farmers' Clubs.
It was noted that there was no request to have presentations from members of the issue published on the Agenda.
3. The minutes of the meeting held on the 12th of February - in 4a, it was noted that Cllr Elwyn Evans and Emrys Thompson (not Cllr Robert Jones) visited the Llanegryn Road to see the position. With this correction, the minutes from 12th February were confirmed on the motion of Cllr Robert Jones, seconded by Cllr. Gwynedd Roberts.
4. Matters arising
a) Highways/paths issues - reference was made to the hedge that was overgrowing on Llanegryn Road, and that it had all been done with the exception of number 6. The Clerk would write further. In relation to paths, it was confirmed that the problem with the path past Gamallt has been resolved, and Richard Jones Gesail was thanked for his cooperation with this. In relation to the matter with the Meriafel path, the Clerk had spoken to Gwyn Evans from Gwynedd Council's Paths Department, and this was in hand.

In this regard, the Clerk noted an email from Gwyn Evans about guidelines for using the route map that is on the Gwynedd Council website, and said that he would distribute it to all of the Councillors.

b) Cutting the grass of cemeteries and the playing field - the response was reported, and the confirmation from the contractor Owain Williams that he was grateful for the work for the 2024 season.

c) Talyllyn Railway - in relation to the idea of having a slate wagon on the outskirts of the village, Stangate Restorations & Replicas' response was noted which had been delivered to Liz Porrett, Talyllyn Railway Manager, which included options and estimates. The Clerk had sent it to everyone in advance. It was decided to send it to Anna Lewis from Gwynedd Council in the first place to see if there is money available, and it was seen that the second option can be suggested. It was noted that the Council had set aside money for this.

Heritage site - in relation to the need to have leaflets in English, and the agreement that the Community Council would be happy for the Talyllyn Railway to reprint them, a kind letter of thanks from Jayne Myfanwy Mills was noted.

d) A tree damaging a wall - there was no update, and this would be on the agenda next time.

5. Planning Matters

It was confirmed that there were no issues since the last meeting.

6. Finance Matters.

a) Invoices

• On the proposal of Cllr Robert Jones and seconded by Gwynedd Roberts, it was agreed to pay the cost of EW Owen and his Company for PAYE work etc for a sum of £120.

• On the proposal of Cllr Eleri Puw and seconded by Robert Jones it was decided to pay LG Painting and Decorating's invoice for £760 for work with repainting the playground equipment. Luke's email was read which explained that there was one more day of work after the weather had improved.

• Zurich Municipal – Council insurance 2024-25 – the sum of £344.55 was due. It was decided to leave this until the next meeting, so that each Councillor has the opportunity to have a look at the exact 'cover' that the Council has, and that the payment goes to the year 2024-25.

b) The Clerk's remuneration for the 4th quarter, together with costs for the year as agreed - on the proposal of Cllr Robert Jones and seconded by Elwyn Evans, it was agreed to pay a remuneration of £400.01, and costs of £291. The costs were for a period of 7 months from the start of the post in September 2023 (annual total of £500)

c) Requests for money;

• Marie Curie – since the last meeting, a request for a balance sheet was made. There was no response, so it was decided to leave the mater.

• Meirionnydd Young Farmers Clubs - it was noted that the balance sheet was needed before considering the application, which had been received. This would therefore be on the agenda at the next meeting.

d) Confirm the appointment of an Internal Auditor for 2023-24 - it was decided to appoint Gwynedd Council's Audit Unit once again, and the Clerk would send a letter to confirm.

7. Councilor Beth Lawton's report (Gwynedd Council)

Cllr Beth Lawton apologized for not being able to attend last time. We expressed our best wishes to her in the surgery she was facing in the near future.

The launch of the Talyllyn Railway 75 Appeal was noted, which is to raise money for the I Railway for the next 75 years.

8..Cllr.'s Report. Elwyn Evans, representative of One Voice Wales.

A comprehensive report was given by Cllr Elwyn Evans. He outlined the work of the Policy Committee he had attended via zoom, and the consultation with the Welsh Government.

He talked about money in 'dormant funds' accounts and the decision how to use the money; cost of living crisis project; the link with the WLGA, concern about the financial constraints of County Councils, one Voice Wales' relationship with County Councils, and the idea of merging Community Councils.

Elwyn was thanked very much for his work

9. Correspondence.

a) Matters of Llanfihangel y Pennant Church cemetery;

• An email from Helen Edwards regarding the burial of her parents' ashes was noted. Her grandfather and grandmother, John Maurice and Elizabeth Ann Edwards, were buried there. The Clerk would respond with Gwynedd Council's fee list, get more information, and suggest a meeting at the cemetery.

• Noted the receipt of £110 from I B Williams and his Son regarding a tombstone for the late Mary Jones, Ty'n y Bryn.

• Noted the receipt of £121 from I B Williams and his Son regarding a tombstone for the late John Morgan Lewis and Richard Norton Lewis.

• It was confirmed that the Council was not responsible for Abertrinant cemetery.

b) There was an email from Gwynedd Council regarding the Council's Home Sharing scheme, and the need to spread the benefits of the scheme.

c) The Annual report of the Independent Panel of financial remuneration for Councilors was noted.

d) There was a letter from Abergynolwyn Annual Duck Race requesting permission to use the Playground, on the 5th of May 2024. It was confirmed no problem, but that dogs should not be on the field.

10. Any other matter

• The Council's list of fixed assets was confirmed by going through each item, totaling £19114. In addition to this there was a route between 1 Maesmeillion and the Riverside

Café for £1 which had been taken over. It was seen that it should be discussed again at the next meeting, especially in connection with the insurance.

• Everyone was asked to fill in the 2024 Councillors' interest register form

• The playground bin was full, and needs to be discussed next time.

• It was necessary to discuss the route from the Heol y Dwr gate up to the bench in the playing field, and put it on the agenda next time.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING; Y GANOLFAN ABERGYNOLWYN MONDAY 8th April 2024, 7.00 p.m.
